Tapeswitch Celebrates 50 Years of Success through Responsive Customer Service and Customized Product Manufacturing

A lot is up at Tapeswitch these days. While still celebrating their 50th Anniversary, Tapeswitch continues to be the leading manufacturer of customized safety equipment. With their corporate headquarters located in Farmingdale, NY, along with a 45,000 square foot factory, they are able to continuously provide the highest level of customer satisfaction. Besides their US location, Tapeswitch has four additional manufacturing plants spanning the globe in Canada, Germany, UK and Japan.

Under the leadership of industry veteran, Michael Steele, Tapeswitch is prepared to see significant growth in 2008. "We are focused, have a clear direction, and look toward the future with confidence. The team at Tapeswitch has a "can do" attitude that never fails our customers." Steele points out.

Tapeswitch excels at customizing their core products safety mats, edges and switches to meet any application requirement. Twenty-four hour turnaround time, on time delivery, competitive pricing and availability are just a few key elements contributing to their success. Serving such industries as Transportation, Medical, Mining, Entertainment and many others, you can find them at various upcoming trade shows - WESTEC, MetalForm, Mine Expo, and PROmat are just a few.
